

DESIRE

People mean a lot of trouble – and they become more and more. They build temples, spread scripts about their new God and try to ban the beliefpassed on for ages. This bunch is a dangerous crowd– that is why I already said a long time ago:

Try to be like the wind. Catch the storm flying higher.

Be like the earth and stand your ground. Be like the fire.

We are the earth, we are the air, we are the fire, we are the wind. We are like the sea. We are desire. We are everything that we want to be.

But there is no place left to go for us. That is why we hide beyond space and time, behind the eternal mists of Avalon ...
